ALCOA Workers Said Near Strike

It was reported Tueday morning by the Rockdale office of the CIO that chances for a strike by their aluminum workers was highly possible. If the strike takes place, it will begin at midnight Saturday, July 31, which is the expiration time of the work contract between the CIO and ALCOA.

Strike votes are now being taken in 13 different plants operated by ALCOA throughout the U. S. and early reports indicate that the workers are voting almost nine to one to strike should a new contract not be completed by the Saturday deadline. "'No contract, no work."

Union and Company officials are said to have broken off negotions July 22. They were scheduled to meet again to settle their differences Tuesday.

The union has asked ALCOA for a wage increase of eight cents per hour across the board, longer vacations and increased benefits in both insurance and pension plans. Up until Tuesday morning, the company had offered an across the board wage increase of five cents per hour, but had offered no settlement on the pension, vacation or insurance plans.

Jake Walker, local representative of the CIO reported that he was going to meet with company officials in Rockdale Wednesday morning to arrange for an orderly shut-down should the union workers walk out Saturday night.

ALCOA officials stated Tuesday morning that all of this talk was nothing unusual and shut-down plans were made and strike votes were taken each year in case a new contract was not agreed upon between company and union officials in Pittsburg.

However, union representative Walker said, "We haven't had to go this far with ALCOA since 1949. This is the first time that negotiations have just bogged down and we have gotten to where we couldn't agree on anything since 1949, and at that time we had a seven week strike. We hope to have a good settlement between now and Saturday night mindnight, but as it looks right now we don't believe that it will be possible."

Clerks Commended For Service In Tabulating Returns

Clerks who assisted in compiling the election returns Saturday have been commended for their efficient work. Returns from the various precincts began coming in at fifteen minutes after the closing of polls at 7p.m.

Rufus Cryer, election manager at Crush, Precinct 31, was the first to make returns by phone. Location for receiving returns over the phone was set up in the ff's office at the courthouse. This method of receiving returns has worked very successful in the past few years since there are so many phones in the rural areas over the county.

Bob Abel who is manager of the Chamber of Commerce was at the phone taking the returns.

Alcoa Lake Open To Public On July 29 For Fishing, Boating

Aluminum Company of America announced July 22 that Alcoa lake will be open to the public for fishing and boating on Thursday, July 29. The Lake is scheduled to be open from sunup to sundown, seven days a week. Daily permits for using the lake facilities will be issued at the concession house.

In making the announcement, Works Manager J. D. Harper said that the Lake would be opened to Company employees several days prior to the public opening. The 850-acre lake was stocked with bass, channel cat, brown and crappie about eighteen months ago.

The concession facilities on the Lake will be operated by W. T. Whatley, Jr. He will have boats and motors for rent, and the concession will be stocked with refreshments, fishing tackle and bait. Picnic facilities will also be available near the dock area. No permit will be required for the use of these facilities, and daylight hours will also be observed in the picnic area.

Mr. Harper has urged that all persons wishing to use the Lake facilities become familiar with the rules covering activities on the Lake. He pointed out that these regulations have been establishd to insure a continuing supply of fish and a safe and clean recreation area.

The rules specify that all boats allowed on the Lake must contain a life preserver for each person riding in the boat. Also, persons under sixteen years of age must be accompanied by an adult. Other rules are: All persons wishing to use the Lake must obtain a permit. No intoxicating beverages will be allowed on the Lake or in picnic area. One day's take for fishermen will be fifteen fish, not more than five of which may be bass and each bass must be eleven inches. Fishermen will be required to declare their catch at the end of each day's fishing.

A dock has been constructed and will be available for private boats. Those wishing to leave a boat on the Lake may do so for a weekly or monthly fee. Persons launching private boats on the Lake will pay a daily launching fee.

Government Reviews Grain Program For Drought Aid in Central Texas

The price of surplus grain to be sold to drought-stricken Texas farmers and ranchers who certify that they need this to feed livesctock will be susidized the White House announced Wednesday. If it becomes necessary the money to pay for the feed will then be loaned to the farmers by the government.

At the same time, it was announced by Rep. Homer Thornberry, Austin, that signing of a contract in Washington Wednesday by State Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White and Agriculture Secretary Ezzra Taft Benson is the first step towards setting up a federally subsidized hay selling and distribution program for Central and South Central Texas.

Up to Wednesday, the hay program, authorized last week, could not become operative because it had not been officially applied for by White and Governor Shivers.

The USDA Wednesday allotted $500,000 to Texas for the hay program. Governor Shivers was informed by the Department of Agriculture Wednesday that the hay program in Central Texas should go into effect by the end of the week.

White went to Washington and returned home Wednesday with Benson's signature on the paper, that only now needed the governor's signature. He returned to Austin and after the governor's signature the program will become operative.

Funds to pay one-half the cost of freight transportation of hay not to exceed $10 a ton is provided on the contract. The farmers must buy the hay themselves while the state will pay for acquisition and distribution of the hay inside its environs.

Up to the present no more Texas counties were added to the drought area announced for Central Texas last week. However, Milam county is presently under investigation to be included in the drought-stricken area. The local ASC office received word from the state office Wednesday that this county|s request to be included on the Central Texas list is being considered.

President Eisenhower ordered federal agencies Wednesday to make "every effort" to speed aid to farmers in the drought-stricken Southwest to help them maintain their basic livestock herds.

He issued the instructions in approving the decision by Benson to make available government - owned feed at reduced prices to hardpressed ranchers in designated drought areas.

It is hoped by local agricultural officials that official word that this county is declared as part of that program will come soon. It was estimated that 90 percent of the pasture land is gone with the supply of storaged grain going fast.

Registrants Will Be Requested To Give Current Information

In accordance with a recent amendment to Selective Service Regulations, files of draft registrants will be reviewed annually and many registrants will be requested to submit current information for their files.

The Selective Service regulations have always placed directly upon the registrant the responsibility of notifying the board of any changes in his status immediately after they occur. The amendment to the regulations, where by local boards will review files and request current information, does not change any part of the regulations requiring registrants to keep the local board currently informed at all times.

Registrants are therefore reminded that not only are they required by law to report changes of status to the local board, but it is definitely to their advantage to do so. Many times changes in a registrant's status, which might effect his classification, are reported too late for the board to take reclassification action.

Registrants are urged to report changes such as marriage, divorce or separation, birth of children, any dependents acquired, change of job, serious injury or physical defect, entering or leaving college, joining National Guard or other military reserve or discharge from them and acceptance or rejection if they volunteer for the Armed Forces. Even though some of these changes may not affect classification under present regulations, future changes in regulations might make the date of reporting these changes in status of utmost importance.

Williams' Team Wins Again; Season Ends

The team managed by Richard Williams closed out the season quite successfully by defeating the team directed by Coach Leo Jackson, 17 to 7. William's team has lost one game all season to Jackson's team, winning all others.

Sissy Varner opened on the mound for the winners with Bobby Griswold, a local boy who completed the team, behind the plate.

Evelyn Vybiral caught for the losers with Betty Grace Varnner pitched. She was relieved in the third by Peggy Burkes, after two innings, Betty Grace came back to finish the game for the losers.

William's girls slugged out three home runs to lead the batting for the night. Millie McCall hit a homer and three doubles; Sissy Varner a home run and Barbara Johnson accounted for a homer and three singles.

For the losers it was Peggy Burkes who got a double, Barbara Gurecky with a double and single and Merna Gail Jackson, who accounted for the losers longest hit, a triple.

The first inning saw stars fly, as far as Jackson's team was concerned as William's crew made five points to the losers single. During the second inning, the winners added another point. Other scores came in the third, with three points; three again in the fourth, three in the fifth and two in the sixth.

The losers were blanked for three innings after scoring the one point in the first inning. It was during the fifth that they accounted for three and after a scoreless sixth, they made three in the seventh.

DEMO COMMITTEE

those against whom they wish to vote and leaving unmarked the name for whom they are voting.

And whereas the present arrangement has caused much confusion and many of our election judges honestly do not know how they should count a ballot where there is only one name and no scratch or mark of any kind on same, and it is the sense of this committee that the law should be changed back to the old-fashioned way.

Now therefore be it resolved by the Democratic Executive Committee of Milam County, Texas, that we respectfully petition the legislature to change the election law in the above respect so that our voters will only be required to mark through the names of those against whom they wish to vote and to leave unmarked the other names.

Be it further resolved that the chairman of this committee be instructed to furnish certified copies of this resolution to our local representative and our State Senator and request that they take such action as may be proper in the premises."

A motion was made to adopt the resolution. Following a second the motion was unamiously approved.

RESOLUTION 2

A resolution. Whereas on the primary election of July 24, 1954 a very large vote was cast, the ballot was long and the weather historically hot, and whereas our election judges and clerks stayed with the job regardless of the heat and made their reports to the county chairman that night with unusual dispatch and the people of the county were given information pertaining to the election promptly.

Now therefore be it resolved by the Democratic Executive Committee of Milam County that we extend to our election judges and their clerks our sincere thanks of this committee and of the people of the county for their promptness in tallying the votes and making public the returns of their respective boxes."

A motion was made to adopt the resolution. Following a second the motion was unanimously approved.

The chairman read the number of certified votes for each candidate.

After a discussion a motion was made by Mr. Camp to mail the election manager and committeeman of each precinct a convention slip. Following a second by Dennis Klein motion was approved.

After a discussion a motion was made to proceed to have a second primary run-off on August 28th. The motion was unanimously approved.

Dwight Kornegay made a motion that the meeting be adjourned.

At the desk tabulating the returns were Billy Black, Mrs. Lillian Lester, Mrs. Johnnie Baker and Chairman Max McClaren. Jack Prescott, Emory Camp and Dean White assisted. Sheriff Carl Black, Grady Allen and Hinton Pruett alternated in announcing returns over the loud speaker system that was set up by Zeke Brod.

Returns came in every few minutes and over 75 percent of the returns were in by 9:45. Complete returns from all boxes were in by 12:30 except Rockdale and Salty. Returns from these two boxes were completed early Sunday morning.

Mrs. Minnie Nell Lewis and Mrs. J. B. White assisted the chairman in double checking the returns returned to the chairman. The Milam County Democratic Executive Committee met Tuesday morning in the District Court room to certify the returns. Proper action was taken by the committee in certifying returns and official copies have been filed with the County Clerk, Homer Nabours, and mailed to the Chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, George W. Sandlin.

supplies will be gone shortly. The hay crop has suffered and most of this supply was to have last this fall through next spring when the new crops came in. With the pasture land burning up, farmers and ranchers are forced to use up their storage now.

The county has an accumulated deficiency of about eight inches of rain. Since January 1 up to the present time a little better than seven inches have fallen. This is about only half of the average rainfall for this seven month period when an estimated 15 inches generally falls. The temperature readings have hovered at and above the 100 degree mark for the past several weeks, withdrawing any moisture stored in the earth .

Crop conditions in the county are similar to other disaster counties farm observers reported. If rain doesn't come soon, cotton production will be cut far below normal. With ninty per cent of the pastures gone, maize, corn and hay will be used now for feeding purposes, and even those crops have and are suffering cuts from large production from the excessive heat and the drouth.

the position he now occupies, he was happy no one had done so. This fact gives him a greater opportunity to work at his job and to serve his District.

Mr. Poage, said, "I am but the 'hired man' of the people of our District. Any time the people feel someone else will do a better job it is their privilege to replace me. I consider it a great compliment that no one indicated any desire for such a change this year. I am grateful to my fine friends. I can only express my gratitude by serving our District to the best of my ability. I am just as appreciative of the loyal support of my friends as I would be had I had a dozen opponents. I wish it were possible for me to express my sincere thanks to each one of them individually. This is impossible, of course, but I shall try to show my appreciation at the job for all the people of Central Texas."

ACP Assists Farmers To Construct Livestock Dams

The effect the drouth is having on farm ponds is causing a great deal of concern among many farmers. It is also showing them the folly of inadequate farm ponds.

During normal years, most ponds will last from rain to rain, but during the past three years, it has taken a good size pond to last from one rain to another.

Nearly two hundred farmers have built larger ponds for livestock water, through the Agricultural Conservation Program this year. The Agricultural Conservation program has been assisting farmers for years to carry out needed soil and water conservation practices.

Under this year's program, farmers who carry out an ACP practice, receive assistance for about fifty percent of the cost of the practice.

Any farmer who wants to carry out a needed ACP practice should come by the ASC Office and make his request. All requests are considered by the County Committee each Friday.

Miss Jo Ann Anderson left Monday for Houston where she is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John David Terry.

TSCW Names Two Local Girls As Outstanding Leaders

Two girls from Cameron are among the student officers of Texas State College for Women at Denton planning a wide variety of activities for the first semester which opens Sept. 16. Registration is Sept. 14-15.

All TSCW club and organization leaders will have a part in preparing the Sept. 15 all College Night program, one of the highlights of the first week's orientation program at this state university for women.

Mary Hensley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Hensley, has been elected president of the Sophomore Class. She is a home economics major.

Sara Esslinger, sophomore art major, has been elected president of Omega Rho Alpha, honorary fraternity for freshman English students. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Esslinger.

Both Sara and Mary were honor graduates of Yoe High School with the class of 1953. They were leaders in school activities and long time members of the Yoe High School band.

Both girls were recognized for their outstanding leadership and ability while in the local high school.

Enrollment at TSCW is expected to rise above that of last year, with a marked increase in freshman students for the third year in a row.

Students this year will see further expansion of the physical plant, with construction to start soon on a new Gymnasium and Library Science, Classroom and Administrative Buildings. All will be completed by the fall of 1955.

"TSCW long has been a national leader in numerous fields for women and its great strides in recent years forecast even more importance for its part in Texas education, Dr. John A. Guinn, president said.

"The recent establishment of undergraduate, graduate and research activities in home economics of such variety and superiority as to be unrivaled in the South in years to come is an illustration of our thinking about the future in all areas in which Texas State College for Women can serve the people of Texas," he said.

News About Your Income Tax Bureau

District Director R. L. Phinney said last week in analyzing summary tables on taxpayer assistance program for the 1954 filing period in the Austin District that educating taxpayers in self help in making out their own income tax returns results in substantial savings in man-hours of Internal Revenue Service empployees, enabling the Austin District to assist more taxpayers with fewer employees and benefiting all taxpayers since more personnel remained in a productive status for the examination of tax returns and collection of taxes.

This program shows a decreasing demand for aid and is a strong indication of increasing ability on the part of taxpayers in the Austin District to prepare their own tax forms, Phinney declared. It is also, he said, a tribute to the success of the program carried on during the filing period, through newspaper articles, television and radio programs, and other informational media, to acquaint taxpayers with the best methods of filling out their forms and of applying instructions and contained in accompanying booklets in preparing them.

During the 1954 filing period 541,314 taxpayers were assisted in the Dallas region, comparent to 724,556 aided during the previous year's filing period, a decline of 25 percent. This decrease compares with the national average decline of 13 percent.

The Austin District assisted 160,817 taxpayers during the 1954 filing period compared to 212,246 aided during the 1953 filing period, a decline of 24.1 percent.

"Since our returns for the filing period numbered 1,300,000 - most of them for income taxes," Phinney said, "it can readily be seen that the vast majority of our district residents were willing to tackle Form 1040 and 10-40A themselves. We are grateful for this cooperation. We were also happy to note the tremendous percentage of early filings, which was another form of cooperation extended us throughout the district by hundreds of thousands of taxpayers."

Because of the decline in assistance required, the Austin District needed only 284 persons for use in the taxpayer assistance program for the 1954 filing period with 36,815 hours expended, or 284 agents working eight hours per day for 15 days.

The Austin District showed an ed an average of 4.36 taxpayers assisted per hour.

Nationally more than 14 thousand personnel were thus utilized and in the Dallas Region, 1,023 persons.

It Was Cooler Wednesday; High 98

There is one thing the people on, if they want to or not. It was to, if they want to or not. It was cooler Wednesday than it has been all week. It may not have seemed so, but the official temperature read 98 degrees for the high.

Even though it didn't seem to be cooler, nevertheless, just thinking of that degree makes it feel cooler.

The low for the day was 77 degrees.

The 98 degree temperature is really a low when comparing the high temperature readings recorded over the past week, resting between 100 and 106 degrees. And in some places, the mercury zoomed to even higher markings.

The official weather report for Central Texas says that there are possible scattered afternoon thundershowers today and Friday. Ir this part of the country, thunder showers is beginning to become a very sacred word.

Besides the showers, which you may believe when you see, the weatherman says that the same temperature range will prevail today as yesterday, so it will be cooler than last week!

Disaster struck in 45 states last fiscal year a total of 319 times - and each time the Red Cross was there to relieve human suffering among those still stunned by sudden catastrophe.

Weekend visitors in the J. B. Anderson home were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Terry and children, John David and Pat Aldred, all of Houston.

Cardinals Close Junior League As Champs; Take Victory Over Yankies

The Cardinals closed the Junior Boys League here Monday night taking a win and the championship crown with them. The victors used two big innings to slap down the Yankies, 9 to 5. Opening up fast, the Cards pushed four scores across home plate in the first inning, and again in the second inning. The only other score for the winners came in the fourth inning.

The Yankies were retired at the end of the first inning with no scores but came back in the second for a big scoring rally. The Yankies made all of their points, five, in the second inning, and were blanked for the remainder of the game.

Bobby Elliott hit a home run with two men on for the Cards and added a double the lead the winners batters. Bartel Johnson collected a single and a double for the winners.

Eddie Pavelek was the big noise for the Yankies when he slugged out a double with the bases loaded during the second inning.

Bob Brantley was given the victory and completing the battery for the Cards is Bobby Elliott. Ray Green was on the mound for the Yanks and L. Barrett catching.

The second game was an upset victory for the Indians as they went forth to stomp the second place Gas House Gang 9 to 5. Griffin Barrett was the winning pitcher and Dillon behind the plate. Chili Williams was on the mound for the Gas House Gang and Lee Hollas catching.

Archie Mraz was the big slugger for the Indians, getting a double and a single. For the losers it was pitcher Williams who got a double.

Scores for the Indians came in the first inning when three were made. After having a blank second inning, they came back to score six in the third. The Gas House kids started slow, which meant the ball game for them when they had a scoreless first, one point in the second inning, none in the third, three in the fourth and the last point in the fifth.

The Cardinals ended the season with five victories and one defeat. The Gas House, although losing this last battle, remained in second place, and getting a split record for the season, winning three and losing three.

The Yankies, who lost to the leading Cardinals Monday, had to step down and take a tie for last place with the Indians, who beat the Gas House Gang Monday. Both teams won two games and lost four during this season.

The general director of the events was Coach Leo Jackson, who is director of the Summer Recreation Program. Participa tion in the Junior League has been great and the teams closed the season very successfully.

Managers of the teams were Grady Allen, Jr. and Nathan O-field for the Cardinals; Paul Kunz and Pete Kunz for the Indians; John David Moseley and George Hollas for the Yankies and Preston Reichert and Charlie Michalka for the Gas House Gang.

Bill Including Brazos Dams Passed By House Monday

WASHINGTON — Flood control and navigation projects estimated to cost $109,594,700 were approved for Texas Monday by the House, as part of an $989,217,514 omnibus bill.

The bill goes to the Senate where quick action is expected. The Senate public works committee has completed hearings on a similar bill.

Largest of the nine Texas projects approved was $40,000,000 in flood control work on the Brazos River and two of tributaries, Oyster Creek and Jones Creek.

The Brazos program would involve six dams and reservoirs; Waco on the Bosque river; Proctor on the Leon river; Lampasas on the Lampasas river; Lane port on the San Gabriel; Somerville on Yegua creek and Ferguson on Navasota river.

The projects must still have constructioin funds voted for them. Today's action was authorization, required before money can be appropriated.

E. E. Williams Uses Soil Conservation Plan Improve Farm

E. E. Williams lost little time in developing and carrying out a conservation plan on his 100 acre farm that he has had in his possession less than a year. He first joined the Central Texas Soil Conservation District, and through the District, conservation planners and technicians from the Soil Conservation Service were made available to help determine the needs of the land and then help in the application of the practices required to satisfy. these needs.

Williams started from the beginning applying the practices as they would fit into the overall plan. Already this year the entire farm has been fenced and cross-fenced into four pastures and two fields and arranged so that a good rotation grazing program can be carried out. One 10 acre pasture was seeded to buffel grass and in spite of the dry weather it has furnished some grazing this year. A pond was constructed in another pasture and mesquite trees and shrubs are being removed from another pasture. About one mile of terraces was added to the terrace system to complete the terrace needs.

Williams sees the needs of the land. His objective is to apply the permanent type practices as quickly as possible, and at the same time apply the always important recurring practices such as contour farming, cover cropping, stubble mulching, rotation grazing and sound fertilizer application.

Ironing, Pressing Discussed At Buckholts HD Meet

Mrs. Alice Hughes met with the Buckholts Home Demonstration club during the first part of this month, giving an interesting demonstration on ironing and pressing different types of materials. She stressed the fact that material with a gloss should be pressed on the wrong side of the garment in order to retain the glossy finish.

Mrs. Hughes stated that womens' and girls' sleeves should never be pressed with a crease while mens' and boys' sleeves should always be pressed with a crease down the center of the sleeve.

Attending the two day encampment at Buchanan Dam were Mrs. Theo Fuchs, club president, Mrs. L. H. A. Fuchs, Mrs. Rudolf Zedlits, Mrs. Robert Jungman, Mrs. Johnnie Fuchs and Mrs. S. M. Corley.

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER BLAMES TEXAS WATER SHORTAGE ON DESIRE OF CITY FOLKS FOR CARPET GRASS

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River is clearly mistaken in his letter this week, but we're publishing it in the interest of freedom of the press.

Dear editar:

As everybody knows, it's dry in lots of places in Texas and the problem of saving water is a hot topic of conversation and probably the only subject all office-holders are unanimously in favor of, outside maybe of lower taxes and integrity, which have been known to hit long dry spells themselves but up to now most of the people who favor conserving water talk in vague generalities. They're in favor of it but they never come out and say how.

"Therefore I was pleased to run into a man in town the other day who has come up with a definite, concrete plan for saving water from one end of Texas to the other.

Accordin to this man, one of the biggest consumers of water and one of the most useless in Texas is carpet grass, the stuff most city dwellers figure they ain't livin till they've got a good stand of.

If all the water which was poured on carpet grass on the lawns of just one town in Texas yesterday alone was diverted to agricultural use, especially mine, I'd have Johnson grass four feet tall and cattle that were full and restin in the shade every morning by 9:30. You multiply this by all the lawns in all the towns in the state, plus a good many out in the country and you can see where a tremendous amount of Texas water is goin.

Carpet grass is a puzzle to me. Cattle won't eat it, it dries up if it goes longer'n a week without water, and it costs something to get it started, but town dwellers with 360 more monthly installments on their new home feel like thy're living in a house without window shades if they don't get some carpet grass set out, and when they do, they stake out claims on another hundred thousand gallons of Texas water.

Of course, I don't expect any politicians to come out in opposition to carpet grass, because if you've got the carpet grass vote, you've got a mapority, but me and this man in town, we ain't office-holders and we're hereby startin a campaign against the stuff. I think his motives may not be as agricultural as mine, he's not as interested in conserving water as he is energy and water bills, but we both agree there just ain't enough water in Texas now for farmin and carpet grass both, and one of em ought to go.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Applications For Patrolmen To Be Taken In Texas

Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced this week that the Texas Highway Patrol will accept applications between now and August 25 from young Texans for appointment to the Texas Highway Patrol.

Garrison said that examinations for appointment to the Patrol recruit training school will be given at various points in the state early in September. Some thirty vacancies due to resignations, deaths and transfers will be filled from the roster of those qualified.

The Public Safety Director invites all young men who are interested in a career of law enforcement to make application as early as possible. He pointed out that they must be between 21 and 35 years of age, inclusive have a high school education, be at least 5 feet 8 inches in height and weigh not less than two nor more than three and one half pounds per inch of height.

Garrison emphasized, too, that applicants must have been citizens of Texas for at least a year and they must be of good moral character and in perfect physical condition and able to withstand a rigid character investigation.

Application forms, Garrison said, may be obtained from all Texas Highway Patrol District offices or by writing directly to W. J. Elliott, Chief, Texas Highway Patrol, at Austin.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Browser's" License

"Specs" Johnson, who thinks it's a real treat to spend an hour or so browsing in a bookshop found his idea of heaven up in Centerville last week.

"Just inside the door," Spec says, "there's a tray of bright blue buttons. If you want to look around without having someone suggest you buy the latest best-selling novel, or maybe a history of Africa, you pin a button on your coat lapel.

"You can poke around all you like. Then when you've found the book you want, take off the button, and someone's right there to take care of you."

From where I sit, everybody likes to make his own choice. It doesn't matter whether it's books, or preferences in clothing or makes of cars. And it's no surprise that folks have personal preferences in beverages, too. So if your neighbor orders a glass of beer while you're having coffee, remember he's entitled to his choice, too.

Lone Star Brewing Company Declares Stock Dividend

Stockholders of the Lone Star Brewing Company of San Antonio this week voted a 25 percent common stock dividend to shareholders of record as of July 16, 1954.

The July 19 special meeting of the stockholders wall called expressly to adopt a resolution to amend the charter of the company so as to increase the capital stock of the company. As a result of this action, the Lone Star Brewing Company's capital stock will be increased from 420,000 shares to 525,000 shares of $1.00 par value stock.

The increase of 105,000 shares is to be paid by a transfer from the earned surplus of the company, and it will be distributed as a 25 percent stock dividend to nearly 2000 shareholders.

The stock dividend and the present program of expanisen are the latest in a series of business expansions covering a short business life of only 14 years, during which time the Lone Star Brewing Company has grown from a small concern brewing only 39,720 barrels annually, to a large, well established and a well-known brewery with a presently-to-be realized capacity of 900,000 barrels annual production.

"Care" Relief Packages Rushed To Flood Victims

An initial distribution of $11,500 worth of CARE packages was among the first relief supplies to reach victims of the Danube floods in Austria and Germany, it was reported today by G. Davis, Agent, of the Railway Express Agency, who serves as voluntary CARE representative in this area.

Since cables from CARE'S Mission Chiefs in those countries indicated greatest need in Austria, where 50,000 persons were reported homeless, $10,000 worth of the supplies (comprising 1,000 blankets, household linen, food and resettler's took packages) were immediately released from the welfare organization's Austrian stockpiles. The other $1,500 worth of supplies, or 200 packages, were released for flood victims in Bavaria through CARE Mission in West Germany.

Funds to cover these and additional supplies are urgently needed, Davis stated. Contributitns in any amount for Austrian or German flood relief may be sent to CARE, c-o Railway Express Agency, 208 W. 2nd St. which accepts CARE orders as a public service. All donations will be acknowledged by CARE headquarters in New York City.

It's the Hit that's writing New History

TAKE a look, if you please, at the car and the styling that are changing historic sales standings.

Take a look at the beauty and the buy called Buick — the car that is forging ahead to new sales heights in the 1954 market.

Take a look at the new best seller that has moved into the "Big Three" of the nation's top sales leaders — into that very exclusive circle that for two decades has held only the so-called "low-price three."

For today, as national sales figures for the first five months reveal, Buick is outselling all other cars in America except two of these "low-price three." And each new month firms Buick's new position.

It takes solid worth to bring this about — a lot more automobile per dollar in Buick than in other cars.

But it also takes the glamorous new tomorrow styling that is Buick today. It takes the highest V8 horsepowers, Series for Series, in all Buick history. It takes the room and comfort and ride and handling that are Buick's proud tradition.

And it takes a range of cars to satisfy a wide range of people—with prices that most people can well afford. So you find the low-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-spacious SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER—the four big reasons for Buick's tremendous sales success.

Come in for a demonstration and you'll see what we mean.

With the years-away styling of this glamor car, you'll be way ahead at resale time. And right now you're money ahead with the big trade-in allowance our volume sales can bring you. Drop in this week.

Rettig's Homer Accounts For Four Scores

A home run in the third inning by Jimmy Rettig, with the bases loaded, was the big headliner in the Cameron Recreation League Thursday when the Senior Boys met at the Cameron City Park. Rettig, who was catcher for the winning team, gave the big blow for the night, but his homer came after Steve Polzer's in the first inning and Leroy Franklin's also in the first. Polzer played on the winning team coached by Rev. Solomon while Franklin is a member of the losing team, managed by Jimmie Asher.

The game ended in favor of Rev. Solomon's team, 15 to 2. Winning pitcher was Jody Brantly with Rettig behind the plate. W. K. Leonard started behind the home plate for the losers with Franklin on the mound. Leonard relieved Franklin in the third and in the fifth, Bob Brantly took over the mound. Bobby Williams came in the catchers slot for Leonard and finished the game.

Indians Hit War Path; Victory Strikes Again

The Indians, who are occupying third place in the Little League of the Cameron Summer Recreation Program, have proven themselves to be the most rejuvenated team in the league. Twice in a row have the redskins knocked of League leading teams. Last week it was the Yankies, who are in first place, and this week the second place White Sox.

Also showing definite signs of improving are the Braves who are in last place, but gradually climbing out the ladder and giving their opposition some hard competition.

The Little League schedule for Friday night opened with the leading Yanks against the Braves. The Yankies pulled out a 13 to 8 victory over the Braves with Eddie Williams on the mound. Catching was Holloway.

Braves pitcher was Adams with Kirk catching.

The Yankies opened the game fast by scoring three times to the Braves two. It was the Yanks who added four in the second, and both teams struck out six scores apiece to ending the rally and inning.

The hottest team of the league, the Indians, uprooted the White Sox 12 to 7 in the second game with Veasey claiming the victory. Catching was Hollas.

The Indians opened the game by scoring four times in the first, adding five in the third and ending play with three in the fourth. The Sox collected two in the first, one in the third and tried to catch up but to no avail by scoring four in the fourth.

C. Fikes had control of the mound for the Sox with J. Heitmann behind the plate.

Both games were witnessed by a large crowd of enthused spectators.
